Information for Contributors

Parergon publishes articles and book reviews on all aspects of medieval and early modern literature, history and culture. We are particularly interested in research which takes new approaches and crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries. Parergon does not accept submissions that have already been published elsewhere.

Submissions should be sent in MSWord or rtf, as an email attachment, to the Editor, Dr Anne Scott at anne.scott@uwa.edu.au. Hard copies (single-sided) can be sent to Dr Anne Scott, Editor, Parergon, MEMS (M208), The University of Western Australia, 35 Stirling Highway, Crawley WA 6009, but authors must include an electronic copy (i.e., on a USB drive).

Articles should be between 5000 and 8000 words in length, double-spaced, with footnotes kept to a reasonable proportion, and accompanied by a short abstract. Prospective authors should consult the Parergon Style Guide before submitting. This can be found at: <http://www.parergon.arts.uwa.edu.au/submissions>. In general, authors should observe the conventions of the Modern Humanities Research Association, as outlined in the MHRA Style Guide (2nd edn, 2008).
